About Kinetone

Kinetone was one of the State's first film production companies. The Burne Family established the company in the early days of Queensland film and from 1917 to the late 1970s, Kinetone captured Queensland on film while encouraging and developing many talented filmmakers.

Over the years, a selection of dedicated professionals have given their time and expertise to maintain a vibrant film community in Queensland, greatly assisting emerging filmmakers and supporting the growth of the State's film and television industry.

The 2006 Kinetone Award recipient was John Cox's Creature Workshop. Previous recipients have included: Bond University Professor, Bruce Molloy; The Actors Workshop co-founder, Lyn Kidd; Roly Poly Picture Company Principal, Ron Johanson; Warner Roadshow Studios President and Village Roadshow Pictures Executive Vice-President, Michael Lake; Queensland Animators Group founding member, Max Bannah; the Australian Film Company's Dick Marks, Leigh Christensen from Kodak Australia; and Bob Blasdall from THEpostWORKS.

The Kinetone Award will be presented at the Warner Roadshow Studios 21st Queensland New Filmmakers Awards Ceremony at Regent Cinemas, Queen Street on 11 August 2007. For more information call 07 3007 3003 or email qnfa@pftc.com.au.
